Meet the Operations Intern: Cruz Timbrook

Cruz Timbrook is originally from Bloomington, Indiana. He graduated from the University of Tampa with a degree in Sport Management and has built his experience in golf tournament operations, including working at the RBC Heritage and volunteering at several other PGA Tour events. The aspect of operations that Cruz enjoys most is being out on the course and helping create a great experience for everyone involved. He loves seeing the excitement and joy that comes from being part of a golf tournament, and being able to help create those moments and make people feel welcomed and valued is what makes working in golf so rewarding to him.

Meet our 2026 Student Interns (Part 2):

Baylie Sparks, born and raised in Newbury Park, California, is a sophomore at Arizona State University pursuing a double major in Sports Business and Marketing. At ASU, she is an active member of the Sports Business Association, the Wellness Club, and Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. This is her second year volunteering with the PGA Tour. In her free time, Baylie enjoys staying active through walks and hot yoga, as well as traveling to new places with friends and family.
