Meet our Student Interns: Dallas Fa'afiu

Born and raised in the Bay Area, Dallas Fa'afiu is a sophomore at Arizona State University in the Barrett Honors College studying Sports Business with a minor in Spanish and a certificate in Sports Culture & Ethics. She has previous experience volunteering in Tournament Office Support for the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, and is currently on the Executive Board as Social Media Manager for Women's Club Volleyball at ASU. Dallas is excited to learn more about working behind the scenes in the sports world and helping operations move smoothly for the tour this year.

Meet our Student Interns: Saylor Brock

Saylor Brock, originally from Cincinnati, Ohio, is a senior at Grand Canyon University studying Marketing and Advertising with a minor in Hospitality Management. Passionate about sports, event management, and creating memorable experiences, she is involved in Women in Business and works at GCU's Canyon Activity Center through Campus Recreation. With marketing internship experience and a soccer background, she hopes to build a career in sports business and operations. Outside of work and school, Saylor enjoys golfing, traveling, staying active, and spending time with friends and family.
